A KNOX county officer who banked on the propensity of a jury to mulct a railroad for any kind of charge and brought suit for damages against the L. & N. because it made him ride in a Jim Crow car with his negro prisoner, did not reckon without his host. He was awarded a verdict of $1,000.

THE elocutionary contest at Walton's Opera House to-night promises to be largely attended, not only by our citizens, but those of Boyle and Garrard. P. Hill, of Stanford, Rev. George Gowan, of Lancaster, and W. J. Price, Esq., of Danville. Secure a seat at McRoberts' drug store for 50 cents.

THE city council should force an obedience to its orders or it will bring itself into such contempt nobody will pay any attention to it. The order for the payment of the dog tax has not met with a single response and owners of worthless curs continue to permit them to drive sleep from their neighbors' eyes by making night hideous with their howls and barks. We are going to publish the names of all who are made to pay so that those who do not may have to suffer.

J. W. BUCKNER, the old umbrella man, is rising in the world. He used to say that riding gave him corns on his feet, but that was because he had nothing to ride. Now he has grown so prosperous that yesterday he appeared here sporting a horse and wagon, with a boy driving it and a little dog trotting along under it. This shows what steady effort will accomplish in anything and who knows but what Col. Buckner may yet ride in his own coach and four with a liveried servant handling the ribbons?

A ROW AND A RUMPU. In the heat of argument in a law suit against a doctor a certain limb of the law made an exaggerated statement of the number of law suits the doctor was in, which nettled him very much. Wednesday they met in W. H. Miller's office, when the doctor proceeded to tell the lawyer what he thought of such remarks. The lawyer admitted that he had stretched the truth decidedly, as lawyers are apt to do in such matters, but this did not satisfy the doctor, who intimated pretty strongly that the judge had prevaricated. Thereupon the lawyer hit the doctor in the face and a lively scrap ensued. Mr. Miller rushed in to separate the fighters and succeeded in doing so, not until he met the fate of all peacemakers, however, by getting the worst of the scrap. It is told that while he held the combatants apart with each hand, they both pommelled him in the face, but as his personal pulchritude is not much the worse for the experience, this is probably an invention of Col. Welch. The doctor got out a warrant for breach of the peace, but the trial of the case was postponed, and in the meantime the lawyer, like a pretty boy, went up and confessed a fine.

Col. H. Ross, who is representing the Globe Building and Loan Company, of Louisville, arrived here Tuesday morning. He is general agent and is here to organize a local board for his company. The Globe is second to none in the United States, and if you are intending to build you a home and need any help the Globe Company is ready to help you. Investigate this business and you are sure to be pleased with it. Col. Ross can be seen at the St. Asaph Hotel.

A SENSATIONAL suit has been filed against George P. Bright in the Boyle circuit court by J. A. Hammonds, our Hubble correspondent. It is for $10,000 damages for slander, the petition alleging that Bright had publicly accused him of burning his store to get the insurance and of stealing paints and oils purchased to use upon McKandree church. Mr. Hammonds' lawyers are Messrs. John W. Yerkes and Robert Harding, of Danville, and L. F. Hubble, of Lancaster, while Mr. Bright, who was here Wednesday, engaged W. H. Miller, W. G. Welch and Judge R. P. Jacobs to defend him.

INFIRMARY.—Drs. J. G. Carpenter and J. F. Peyton have rented the dwelling on Danville Avenue belonging to Mrs. Bettie Alford and will convert it into an infirmary. They have already had a vast deal of improvement done and in a week or so will be prepared to receive and care for those who are unfortunate enough to need medical attention. The doctors have secured the assistance of Miss Lou Elliott as head nurse and other nurses will be engaged as the occasion demands. Miss Elliott has had a great deal of experience in the sick room and for several years occupied a position as nurse in Dr. Joseph Price's hospital in Philadelphia. Mrs. Elizabeth Eaton, who has the reputation of being a splendid house keeper, will have charge of the domestic department. Several of the most prominent physicians in the State will compose the board of consultation, while Dr. Joseph Price, of Philadelphia, one of the most eminent surgeons in the country, and who by the way is an intimate friend of Dr. Carpenter, will occasionally visit the institution. Dr. Carpenter tells us that applications for room have already been received and that his only fear is that their house will not be large enough to accommodate their patients.

NEWSFROM NEW YORK

A Danville Merchant!

Says Goods Will be Cheap this Fall, and Orders a Cut on His Stock.

ST. DENIS HOTEL, Broadway and Eleventh Sts., New York, Aug. 10, '95.

DEAR FRIEND HARRIS:

I am delighted with the Metropolis; it is a wonderful commercial center, and this hotel is a beauty and very spacious; judging from the throng which continually crowd the lobby one would suppose that it could accommodate all the people of Danville.

Say, old boy, it pays a fellow big to come here instead of buying goods at home. Not only do we get much lower prices, but you have the best and the finest to make your selections from.

We are scouring the market and we feel sure that our stock when complete will be the finest, best selected, and lower in price than any that was ever shown in our thriving little city, and if we don't largely increase our business there will be something wrong with the intelligence and frugality that has heretofore characterized Danville buyers.

Every thing here indicates the return of good times, and am governed by our purchases accordingly.

Give my regards to Cap, and all inquiring friends, and sell the balance of our spring goods, even if you suffer some loss, as we must have every inch of room for our fall and winter stock.

Expect to be home about the latter part of next week, and hope this finds you as well as it leaves us. I am

Yours Very Truly,
J. L. FROHMAN.
